

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 1:15-cr-69
JUDGE DOUGLAS R. COLE

JASON GMOSER,

Defendant.

ORDER

This cause came before the Court for a Telephone Status Conference on July 27, 2022, at 12:45 p.m. before Judge Douglas R. Cole. The Government advised the Court that it will be sending a proposed plea agreement to Defendant's counsel by the end of the week. Defendant's counsel requested a 30-day continuance to meet and confer with his client. The parties agreed to a Telephone Status Conference on August 26, 2022, at 12:30 p.m. There were no objections to the speedy trial clock being tolled through the date of the next status conference.

Therefore, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the Defendants in a speedy trial, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(A), (B)(i), as failure to grant the continuance would prevent the parties from continuing to work towards a resolution, and thus would likely lead to a miscarriage of justice. Based on the foregoing, the Court GRANTS the continuance and also finds the period of time elapsing from July 27, 2022, until August 26, 2022, is properly, and shall be, excluded from the speedy trial calculation.

SO ORDERED.

July 27, 2022

DATE

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "DRC".
